If you think smarter than most and are interested in a fantastic opportunity in one of the world’s leading retail companies, then you could have just the brain we’re looking for.

success story

We’ve got a simple business model that succeeds on just one promise – smarter shopping. Our innovative concept has achieved rapid growth, quickly establishing a reputation with consumers for high quality and low prices in over 250 stores already trading in Australia.

Our business plan to maintain this rapid growth requires more high calibre Area Managers to join our progressive management team.

challenges and rewards in equal measure

If you are an ambitious university graduate with business experience who craves responsibility and the challenges that go with it, we would like to hear from you. The demands are high. So too are the rewards.

To ensure a thorough understanding of every aspect of our business and to equip you for the future, you will initially undertake a 1 Year Management Training Program which is intensive, pragmatic and very hands on. In addition to the support and guidance we provide, you will need the stamina and resolve to climb a steep curve.

Once fully trained you will take on responsibility for a group of stores and all of their operational needs.

Senior Management appointments are made from within the business, indicating our total commitment to career development. A combination of your performance and the right blend of skills will see you on the fast track, with promotion opportunities in Store Operations, Buying, Logistics, Property Development, IT and Administration/Finance. Each position carries significant challenges, responsibility and reward.

have you got what it takes?

You’re a university graduate with a strong academic record in your chosen field, have 1 to 5 years business experience and the charisma to lead a team. You’re resilient and highly motivated. You possess natural people skills with the ability to inspire others around you. You are flexible and able to commit to opportunities that may require relocation.
