The Department of Education and Training (DET) provides education and training services across the entire continuum of learning; through early childhood education and care, schooling, vocational education and training, and higher education.

DET offers a diverse range of positions both within its teaching and non-teaching workforce and provides opportunities for high achieving and skilled professionals who are dedicated, enthusiastic, flexible and team-orientated to work in locations across Queensland.

Benefits
Employment with the DET provides an opportunity to pursue a fulfilling career while also meeting family, personal and lifestyle needs and making a real difference in the lives of our state’s young people.

Our employees benefit from:

- Flexible employment options, including temporary, casual and part-time employment
- Competitive salary levels
- Generous superannuation and salary packaging schemes
- A broad range of leave entitlements
- Work / life balance opportunities
- Induction and mentoring programs
- Professional development opportunities
- Career development through transfer and secondment opportunities
- Incentives for working in rural, remote and regional areas of Queensland, in some roles and

Career Opportunities
DET offers a diverse range of employment opportunities including:

- Secondary Teacher
- TAFE Teacher
- Early Childhood Teachers
- Primary Teacher
- Head of Curriculum
- Deputy Principal
- Principal
- Speech Language Pathologist
- Occupational Therapist
- Orientation and Mobility Specialist
- Physiotherapist
- School Nurse
- Teacher aides
- School based administrative staff
- Grounds staff
- Policy, project and administrative roles.

Further information
Teaching in state schools  www.teach.qld.gov.au
Early Childhood Education and Care opportunities  http://education.qld.gov.au/earlychildhood
DET career and employment opportunities  http://jobs.govnet.qld.gov.au/